Hello and welcome to NEOS 2024

We are proud to say this year is our 21st anniversary, a milestone which reflects the dedication and collaboration of countless people over the years. Over that time, NEOS has grown to be one of the largest events of its kind in the country with up to 400 artists taking part, from Montrose to Inverness, and the quality and variety of creative talent on offer is something of which we are very proud.

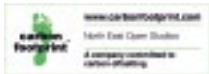

This book has been created to help you make the most of your visit and we hope you will keep and use it throughout the year as a reference guide alongside our new website which this year contains a members' gallery facility where you can find more examples of our members' creativity.

You can also download the NEOS mobile phone app (find us in your phone's OS App store under North East Open Studios).

NEOS 2024 is brought to you by a team of terrific volunteers who give their time and expertise freely throughout the year. Ensuring that this is an enjoyable experience for both visitors and artists, takes a lot of effort and commitment so a huge thank you to them all for bringing it together.

Finally, NEOS 2024 is all about the personal interaction between artists and visitors and I therefore hope that you will feel free to chat and ask questions when you visit a NEOS 2024 venue – we really do like nothing more than a blether with interested visitors!

Chair, NEOS 2024

The history of NEOS

21 YEARS OF CREATIVITY

NEOS was established in 2003 by a small group of artists and makers in the North East of Scotland. They soon realised that there was a vast collection of artists/creative makers in the North East of Scotland that was virtually unknown to the wider public. The NEOS event has always been a co-operative of some of the best creative and artistic/makers talent, run by them for the benefit of each of them. Its continued success is down to the selfless commitment of its members and NEOS is now firmly on the North East of Scotland events calendar. It provides the ideal mechanism for members of the public throughout the North East of Scotland, and the artists/makers themselves to tap into a wealth of artists/makers creativity.

NEOS 2024 visitor survey

Please help us continually improve our offering by giving us feedback on your NEOS 2024 visitor experience. When you visit a NEOS 2024 member or venue you will be asked if you wish to take part in our survey by providing your email address. If so, scan the QR code on display in the venue and you will be sent a link to our online survey after our NEOS 2024 event has ended.

NEOS 2024 Prize Draw

To show our appreciation, you will be entered into a NEOS 2024 Prize Draw :- First completed visitors survey entry selected wins £100; Second completed visitors survey entry selected wins £50.

Please note: No personal details will be stored or shared with a third party. You will be sent a link to the survey and your details will then be deleted. If for any reason you don't receive a link, in October, please visit our website: northeastopenstudios.co.uk/survey

How to use this guide

The NEOS 2024 Book represents a selection of work, location of and contact details of all our 2024 Members.

For a more detailed guide, contact the NEOS 2024 member individually, download our NEOS app, consult our location maps, or look at our website: northeastopenstudios.co.uk where you will find a new online gallery for each NEOS 2024 member showing more examples of their fabulous creative work.

(Note: Many NEOS 2024 members are open all year)

NEOS 2024 is a co-operative run on a voluntary basis by a dedicated team of members.

Would you like to get involved?

We hold regular meetings throughout the year, sometimes online via 'Teams', but also a few times we meet in person. If you feel that you have any ideas to share or would enjoy being part of an enthusiastic team that put the NEOS 2024 event together, then we'd love to hear from you.

For more information, please do contact: Lynne at: chair@northeastopenstudios.co.uk

Or contact any of the NEOS 2024 committee. You can find them on our website: northeastopenstudios.co.uk

NEOS AGM

Alternatively, you can come along and join us at our Annual General Meeting on Sunday 27th October 2024.

The more people on our team means more diversity, more ideas, more fun and less work for each of us! We look forward to hearing from you.

The delight of NEOS 2024 is that it is made up of self selecting members ranging from nationally recognised artisans to new creatives taking their first public steps. Please check the following maps for the location of our NEOS 2024 Members' entry across the whole North East of Scotland from Forres to Inverbervie and beyond. Or alternatively download our NEOS App.

Please note that locations are approximate. To find NEOS 2024 members more accurately, use the 'what3words' app and enter the three ///reference words used as part of each member entry.

Bespoke Kiltmaker Andrea Chappell creates bespoke, handstitched kilts in both traditional and contemporary designs, to promote this endangered heritage craft to a modern audience. Each kilt tells the story of a person, place, or event, often using unique, handprinted textiles to create wearable works of art.

Enter the cul-de-sac opposite the sunken gardens (corner of Grant Park), The Presbytery is on the left, behind St Margarets church, where you will find the Pleating Palace on the drive at the right-hand side.

This year I am concentrating on Natural Abstracts, besides Landscapes and Wildlife photography. The ever-changing weather and seasons on my doorstep in The Howe of Cromar and in the wider Scottish landscape are the inspiration of many images. Creative Cromar has also many practitioners of other arts and crafts nearby.

Alastair crafts his work on the pottery wheel. With a curiosity about the properties of the clay he often tears, slices, and scores the pieces during and after the throwing process, the evolution of these marks results in interesting, organic textures. Further layers of texture and colour are added through the use of various reactive glazes, slips and oxides.

When approaching from the city, travel over the Victoria Bridge and take the first left at the junction onto South Esplanade East. Take the first right into Deemouth Business Centre. My images are built in layers using mainly Gelli printed organza and needle felting to create depth to the background before I add layers of textures for the final image. These textures can include appliquéd 'stones' and 'pebbles', hand, and machine embroidery and natural found objects. I also experiment with different ideas and a 'what if' approach.

From Ellon take the Auchnagatt road for approximately 4 miles. Turn right on to the Arnage/Stuartfield road for approximately 4 miles, at the un-signposted Y junction, take the right-hand fork and I am first on the left.

Light and colour in the landscape is what my current paintings are about. The way that light filters through trees or creates dappled shadows on paths. I am working predominantly in pastel at the moment, aiming to capture a sense of place with an economy of mark making. I also use other painting mediums such as oil, watercolour, and gouache.

Follow signs for Haughton Country Park. Follow the main road in to Alford (A944) and look for Montgarrie road on the right if approaching from Aberdeen or on the left if approaching from Bridge of Alford. Continue on this road past the golf course and over the junction to take the next right which should be signposted for the park.

Plenty of free parking.

I am a landscape painter working mainly in oils. Someone said recently that my work made them feel calm and at peace, like meditation. That's the feeling I get when I'm out in the vast landscape of north east Scotland, with its wide-open skies, beaches, dunes, and fields. This feeling is my inspiration and what I want to capture in paint.

Coming into Newburgh from the south, we are about half-way along Main Street on the left-hand side, directly opposite the Udny Arms Hotel/Trellis Cafe (lovely for a coffee and cake!). The gallery is at the bottom of the back garden, the way is signposted.

I make mixed media sculpture around that magical, mystical material - glass! I work in kiln formed glass, forged iron, wood, metals, enamel, and stone. My work is inspired by the natural world around me, local myths and pre-history and the passage of time itself. All my work is entirely original and completely hand made in Fyvie.

Beechrow Cottage is halfway between the War Memorial and the Kirk in downtown Fyvie. There's a very tall beech hedge and blue iron gates with the house name on them. I have worked with textiles all my life as a teacher and exhibitor. I treat my pieces as works of art from murals to hats, scarfs, and accessories, all based on local hand-felted merino wool. I am from Madrid, trained in Paris and partly based in Elgin. I take inspiration from nature using plant-based dyes from the beautiful countryside of Moray.

We are relatively close to the centre of Elgin and close by Dr Gray's Hospital in the west end, which is just off the A96 heading out of Elgin in the direction of Inverness.

There is plenty of free on-street parking in surrounding streets.

I am inspired by coastal walks and the rugged North East landscape. Having studied Fine Art at Duncan of Jordanstone, I have returned to my first love of drawing and painting, working in acrylics. I love dramatic clifftops and stunning castle views. My paintings, prints and a selection of my handmade jewellery will be on display in my summerhouse studio.

We are located between Mintlaw and Longside. If you are coming from Mintlaw towards Longside turn left at the sign for Bridgend and go over the former railway bridge. Follow the road to your right. Our cottage is the 2nd house on the right with a tall Holly hedge. The summerhouse studio is in the back garden by the patio.

My work is inspired by the reflective colour and movement found in water and my speciality - iridescent lustre glazes are like oil on water or a peacock's feather. My ceramics are decorative and for the home. Joining me this year are Brian Cook Shand and Emma Rodenhurst Grant find their NEOS entries for more information.

When coming into the village from Ladysbridge on the B9121 Chapel Street is the second road on the left. The pottery is in the old church on the right opposite the Seafield Arms. Coming from Banff into the village on the B9038 at the t-junction turn left and then turn first right into Chapel Street, the pottery is opposite the pub.

Welcome to my hillside studio overlooking Findhorn Bay and the Moray Firth. Inspired by local landscapes and seascapes, I love experimenting with expressive mark-making - using a wide range of media, including acrylic, oil, ink, pastel, and watercolour. I often add texture with crackle paste and shimmer with gold paint and gold leaf.

2 miles from Forres . From Forres High St, go down Tolbooth St. At roundabout take 2nd exit - St Leonard's Rd, B9010. Carry on till u come to a fork in the road: take left fork. Climb winding road past quarry: keep on till u stop at crossroads. Turn left. We are 1st cottage on left-hand side of road. BEWARE: satnav leads u astray at end!

I am working with colour and form Clay is the material. My natural pigments are sustainably foraged in and around the area and from journeys around the world. They are prepared in the studio and fired in a raku kiln and smoke fired in a pit. Also exhibiting here is James Crombie, Johanna Sanden and Anne Marquiss.

We are 2 miles south of Portsoy off the B9022 Huntly Road. Small sign to Durn Hill Farm on right when heading south. Follow that road for 500 metres and our entrance is in front of you. Follow signs for exhibition spaces.

A valiant adventurer in the world of art, Wendy Grosvenor works on board, canvas, and paper. She is a mixed media artist, currently engaged in figurative work- exploring disruption and displacement of the image. You're warmly invited to pop into her studio for your own exploration - a chat - and possibly coffee and cake in the cafe next door!

Turn off the B9102 in Grantown Town Square, into Seafield Avenue. Turn left off Seafield Avenue at the Pagoda Restaurant car park. Moray Park Studios is on the first floor in the house to the left side of the Pagoda. Look out for OPEN sandwich board sign, to the left as you drive in. Enter in the blue door and up the stairs.

My work is mostly inspired by Sacred Art, as seen in the traditional Orthodox icons and the work of the great classics of Medieval and Renaissance art. This particular icon is recreated in tempera and pure gold leaf, in the same techniques used by 15th century Siena-school artists. The gold border is richly decorated and highlighted with cold enamel paints.

With a background in design, I have always been intrigued by the shape, pattern, and colour in nature. These three elements are incorporated in still life, landscape and more recently, semi abstract artworks painted mainly in acrylic paint. I am sharing a venue with Helen Forrest in her home and studio located in the rolling landscape of The Mearns.

On the A90, about 10 miles south of Stonehaven, take the B967 for Arbuthnott, Inverbervie (and the Grassic Gibbon Centre). Drive 200m along the B967 past the primary school and look left over the fields, Whiteriggs Cottage is to the right of the large green barn. Drive a little further and turn left up the farm road.

My retirement hobby has become my passion. Come and enjoy my wood turned creations that include bowls in a variety of woods, pens, decorations etc. I will be exhibiting along with my partner 'The Fuzzyfelter'.

Open all year by appointment.

Street parking available and also in the driveway at the front.

The Colourist are a group of artists from the locality who meet weekly to paint and draw in a variety of media. The inspiration for our work comes from the natural world, local landmarks, and seasonal views. The group includes well known artists who have had solo exhibitions and others who are beginning their creative journey.

Mid Street is parallel to Fore Street and is one street inland from the sea. From the Square, where there is parking, walk north away from the harbour onto Mid Street. The hall is a white building 100 yards along on the right-hand side.

Parking in the Square, at the Harbour and outside the hall.

Inspired by the mystery of the sea, its energy and power encapsulate the heart of the painting. I am an oil painter creating seascapes from all seasons, moods, and perspectives, capturing the immensity, beauty, and uniqueness of the relationship between the ocean and the sky. Paintings, prints, cards. Shared space with Iona Hall Silversmith.

I create work, that I hope makes people smile and evokes a memory or feeling; I love bright and bold colour and use this to bring my drawings or photos of everyday objects and landscapes to life. As a printmaker, I mainly work with silk screen and risograph printing techniques. These perfectly suit my illustrative style of work.

At the town hall and main crossroads in the village, turn on to Bridge Street so the chemist is on your left. Follow the road until you come to a hard right, the house is on Burnshangie Road straight ahead, off the corner. We are the only new build on the left of the road. My studio is above the garage, with a side entrance to the left.

I am delighted to welcome you again to my studio in Blairdaff. I am influenced by nature and wood as a medium. I enjoy experimenting with various mediums and tend to create distinctive pieces of art combining local Aberdeenshire wood, resin, fused glass, paint and natural mediums to produce unique one-off pieces.

Head for Kemnay, at the war memorial, turn into Riverside Road. After 2.2 miles, turn right at signs for Bennachie Centre and Chapel of Garioch. Keep right for 0.5 mile, pass the church and cemetery. At give way sign, turn left. The Dell is the 2nd house on the left.

For me, pottery should be a pleasure to use and a joy to own. We need beautiful domestic objects around us which enrich life's daily rituals. I produce one off pieces from stoneware clay fired in an electric kiln. I explore a range of styles, challenging myself and the clay, so the results vary from smooth clean line forms to more earthy, rocky textures.

I am between Fordoun and Laurencekirk, one mile off the A90 taking the 'Mill of Conveth' turning. The single lane road meanders through farmland before coming to effectively a T junction. Turn LEFT here, continue over a small stone bridge and we are the only house on the right-hand side.

My images on show are printed large, on canvas and have survived the hardest test of all: To have spent months on a wall and still catch my eye. And I craft easels from old whisky cask staves too. My best wishes to everyone involved in NEOS.

After you come out of Tarland on Melgum Road, keep driving for a bit more than a mile. When you reach a Y junction, keep to the road on your left. It is the 4th house on the left, the only one with a shed across the road. The Exhibition is in the shed.

Parking for cars and small vans available at the venue.

Our group look forward to welcoming you to our gallery and workshops of contemporary arts. Nic Whitehouse shows unconventional pottery, Camille Rust works wood into objects of functional beauty, Caroline Hobbs's vibrant outdoor mosaics, Jemima and Jill Chillingworth bring creative crocheting and a returned passion for art.

Just out of Portsoy heading towards Banff on the A98, take the B9022 on the right signed to Huntly. Then first left by the Toll House, Muirhilllock Arts is 100 yards up the hard track. Yellow NEOS signs point the way. In favourable winds an airship fish flaps above the venue.

It is a delight to meet NEOS visitors and to share my passion and joy in what I do. My creative roots lie in traditional embroidery, but my work now has little in common with tradition other than the use of stitch. I include paint, paper, a variety of textiles, collage, and even discarded materials, making unique 2D and 3D artworks.

If travelling north on the High Street in the centre of Inverurie (B9001) you come to a mini roundabout in front of the Town House, turn left there onto West High Street. Turn next right onto Constitution Street. Keep left at the Tesco mini roundabout. Turn next right just before ALDI. Loco Works will be visible down on the left.

A warm welcome awaits at Kemnay House! Living in the midst of Aberdeenshire's hills, I am regularly inspired by our ancient landscapes altering by the moods of changing seasons. Photography is my favoured choice of medium, which is boldly influenced by my early career in illustration & design. Slight obsession for moonsets over our beloved Bennachie.

Coming from Aberdeen, take the B994 then B993 to Kemnay. Go through the village, pass the school on your left and just after the Grove Nursing home turn left into the entrance of the private drive. Coming from Monymusk, take right turn after golf course and community garden. Follow signs to parking on either side of drive.

I make a wide range of colourful ceramics in my studio in my garden. I take inspiration from marine life, my love of gardening and walks in nature. I have continued to explore with different clays, textures, and glazes. My work varies from large sculptural pieces to smaller bowls, vases, driftwood mirrors, hearts, toadstools, and jewellery.

From the Market Square take Evans St, thereafter Arduthie Rd and through the railway bridge. Follow signage to Banchory onto Farrochie Rd, take the 2nd right for Bernham Avenue and then 1st left into the cul-de-sac and the venue is on the far left. If traveling on the A90 take the Spurryhillock exit, then follow signage for Banchory.

Embroidery, textile art and engraved glass. I love colour and detail. Whatever I am working on - fabric, painted furniture, or wildlife embroideries - there will be attention to the small things. My chairs all contain surprises, and my current work is becoming increasingly experimental. I am focusing now on mixed media and three-dimensional embroidery.

Head west from Banchory on the A93 to Inchmarlo. Go through the village and take the right turn to Glassel (after the narrow bridge). Our cottage is the first on the left - red door. The cottage is on a blind bend but there is room for a car beside the cottage and outside the garage opposite.

Loving sea and landscapes, there is no better place to be than here in the north east of Scotland. Every walk with my dog or trip to the coast brings new ideas. Using acrylics and pastels to explore colour I create works varying from tiny abstracts to large scale canvasses. I look forward to sharing my working process with you throughout NEOS.

The Garioch heritage centre is located just behind Aldi's car park on the left-hand side in the centre of Inverurie. Approx a ten min walk from the railway station.

The Johnshaven gnomes have come to join me on my 16th (or is it 17th) year of NEOS. They're back creating mischief & mayhem again, spreading their infectious humour about (no Covid virus in sight). Jewellery in glass, gemstones & metals (silver & copper). See if we can make you smile & maybe you can pick-up a gift in the process. Happy NEOS!

15 miles south of Stonehaven on the A92. Turn into Johnshaven & follow the road to the village shop. Immediately before the shop is Main St. Johnshaven Gallery is the 3rd house on the right (white house with blue doors). Entry is via the garage doors at the far end of the house.

Ewan Taylor, AKA Redbellyboy is a print artist. He draws inspiration from pop culture, film, graphic design, loud music and tries to squeeze as much of it into his work as possible. Bright colours, bold lettering, intricate designs, and humour are all key ingredients. He'll be exhibiting with the Brilliant DaisyGlaisy in her home studio.

From Aberdeen through Dyce take the A947 twelve miles to Oldmeldrum. From Inverurie take the B9170 five miles to Oldmeldrum. In Oldmeldrum, from the Square, turn on to Urquhart Road then take the second on the left on to King Street.

I am an artist, writer, and therapeutic facilitator. I am currently experimenting with oil paint and cold wax medium to create textured layers of narrative within my paintings. I am inspired by nature, especially the sea, and therapeutic processes. I often include asemic writing (writing with no meaning) and poetry in my work. I also create papercuts.

Heading to Banchory from Aberdeen on the A93 North Deeside Road - as you enter Banchory turn right in front of Tesco onto Hill of Banchory East. At the first roundabout turn left onto Pine Tree Road. Take the second road on the right into Willowtree Way. Take the first left into a cul-de-sac. No. 3 is the second house on the left.

I'm fascinated by Scotland's myths and legends, so when I started my sculpting journey it wasn't surprising that magical creatures were involved! I sculpt fairies from galvanised and stainless-steel wire. I also sculpt creatures associated with magic, such as owls, robins, and moon gazing hares. All suitable for home and garden.

I use needle felting to make small models of all types of animals and birds as ornaments, and I particularly enjoy modelling people's pets from photographs. I also find it very satisfying to make models of small garden birds, as I can make them life size. All the money that I raise from sales and commissions is donated to animal charities.

From the B993 Kemnay to Alford Road, turn right into the village of Monymusk. At the far side of the village square, turn right into the car park. The front door of the Village Hall is opposite the playpark and the council recycling bins, but easy access to the room where my work will be displayed is round the back, beside the church.

Parking is available beside the hall and in the village square.

Williams, Gladys

Louisville Studio,
4 Louisville Avenue,
Aberdeen AB15 4TX

I enjoy working in many mediums, but especially love working with fabric and painting with watercolours. My art is often landscapes, both real and imaginary. Sometimes the fabrics maybe dyed, painted, and stitched to get the effects I want. Exhibiting with Lorna Watson and Margie Trewin. A warm welcome awaits.

Louisville Avenue can only be accessed by car from the A93 Great Western Road. Coming into Aberdeen turn first left after Anderson Drive. Travelling out of Aberdeen turn first right after Burns Road. Louisville Studio is accessed from the driveway of 4 Louisville Avenue, the first house on the right. Some parking available on driveway.

Driveway parking allows level access to the Studio. Road parking also.

My art sits at the intersection of technology and humanity: Where artificial, coded, rigid graphics meet the natural, free unpredictable human form. Through a combination of drawing, painting, and digital art, I explore the blurred boundaries between chaos and control, the cerebral and the physical... where is human innovation taking us?

The entrance to the property is directly opposite the entrance to the tennis club and bowling green. The studio is located round the back of the house in the back garden.

Open all year by appointment.

There is lots of parking space, on the street, or in my drive.

I have a large amount of work on display which are landscape, still life, seascapes, portraits and mixed media/natural form wall hangings. My work is inspired by my travels abroad and the beauty of the Scotland.

Coming from Union Street, turn left at Queen's Cross roundabout down St Swithin Street and Devonshire Road is the second street on the right before Cafe Cognito and the Spar.

Open all year by appointment.

Parking available outside or Pay and Display at end of street.

Would you like to help us make a difference?

It takes a lot of voluntary hours to deliver NEOS and the more people there are on the Committee the less each individual has to do.

If you'd like to join us in a highly rewarding activity, please join us at our next NEOS AGM to be held on Sunday 27th October 2024. See you there!

2024 NEW MEMBERS!

This year we have a staggering 52 new members taking part in NEOS 2024. Creativity is certainly alive and kicking in the north east of Scotland. New members are identified in this NEOS 2024 book by a yellow triangle set into the corner of their member entry.

We do hope you will take the time to seek them out during your travels around the area. This is a great opportunity for them to meet and greet a new audience for their creative work. It's also an opportunity for them to become part of our wide ranging and talented body of creativity in the north east of Scotland. If you're a new member reading this, a warm welcome to NEOS 2024, if you're able please take time to visit your fellow creatives, network and make new contacts.

There's a wealth of knowledge and experience within NEOS and it's members, old and new! We hope you enjoy your first experience of NEOS 2024 and look forward to you being with us again in the future.
